Larry & Tammy Allred
Missionaries to Mexico

Larry and Tammy Allred were approved as BBFI missionaries to the Yucatan peninsula of Mexico in September 2004. The Allreds served six years as independent Baptist missionaries in Mexico prior to their approval in 2004.

Larry graduated in 1996 from Louisiana Baptist University, Shreveport, LA. Tammy completed the two-year missions program at Decatur Baptist Bible Institute, Decatur, AL, in 1992. Larry was ordained in October 1996.

Larry Allred is the founding pastor of the North Mérida Baptist Church. He and Tammy have also helped to plant three other churches - South Merida Baptist Church, San Jose Tzal Baptist Church and Cauce City Baptist Church.

When the Allreds arrived in Merida in the spring of 2000, they first began a home Bible study. The next year the Lord provided a building for them to purchase for the first church plant. In September of 2001, the North Merida Baptist Church had their grand opening service. In 2008 Larry received his masters in biblical studies through Louisiana Baptist University. In 2009 Larry and another Baptist missionary co-founded the Baptist Bible Seminary. In May 2014 Larry received his PHD in Christian Counseling through Louisiana Baptist University.

Larry and Tammy have four adult children and nine grandchildren.
